

The Raymond G. Case Award

Award Description:

The Raymond G. Case Award is presented for distinguished executive service to the New Jersey Water Environment Association South Section in promoting public understanding of the need for adequate water pollution control.

General Criteria:

1. Member in good standing for at least ten (10) years.
2. Nominated by the Nominating Committee.
3. Past President of the New Jersey Water Environment Association South Section & New Jersey Water Environment Association.
4. Made some type of process modification that enhanced treatment works and/or published an article in an "Effluent" or "SCAN" publication.
5. A picture and resume of the nominee must be submitted with all documentation for qualification.